VISION STATEMENT
2006

The Fresno County Women Lawyers Women's Hall of Fame was created to honor outstanding women who made a substantial contribution to Fresno County in one or more of the following areas of Agriculture, Athletics, Art, Business, Cultural, Charity, Educational, Entertainment, Environment, Legal, Medical, and Political. The logo for the Fresno County Women Lawyers Women's Hall of Fame was designed by local graphic artist Joe Garcia and the metal sculpture of the logo is by local artist Chris Sorenson. The border of two torches with flames symbolizes eternal honor--the olive branches caring and hope--the ribbon connects reflect the connection between all humanity. The Latin phrase "Possunt quia posse videntur" means "they can because they think they can", or in other words, the power of positive thinking.

The initial primary committee members, and the group they represent which made the idea to have displays honoring Fresno County woman a reality are:

Karen L. Lynch, Esq., Fresno County Women Lawyers
Linda K. Durost, Esq., Fresno County Women Lawyers
Sister MaryAnne DiVincenzo, Fresno Women's Network
